

UCL Institute of Immunity and Transplantation Open Day
Tuesday 27 June 2017 1-4pm

Agenda

12.45pm

Arrivals – Please arrive at UCL lecture theatre 1, ground floor, Royal Free Hospital.

1pm

Introduction from Professor Hans Stauss, director of the Institute of Immunity and Transplantation

1.10pm

Dr Victoria Male

Transplant Immunology from World War II to the present and beyond

1.25pm

Dr Frank Heuts

Autoimmunity - just a matter of education?

1.40pm

Professor Arne Akbar

Immunity: Turning back the clock during ageing

1.55pm

Professor Emma Morris and students from Graveney to present their work with the IIT.

2.30-4pm – this will take place in the Sir William Wells Atrium

Interactive session: Students will be able to speak to clinicians and researchers and will be able to participate in a variety of activities which demonstrate the work being carried out at the institute.

Location:

UCL lecture theatre 1/Sir William Wells Atrium

Ground floor

Royal Free Hospital

Pond Street

London

NW3 2QG

Contact: gabriel.roberts@nhs.net or call 020 7472 6665.

Please note: Lecture theatre 1 can be accessed from the ground floor of the hospital. Please walk down the main corridor, following the signs for CAMHS. At the end of the corridor turn left through the double doors (again following the sign for CAMHS). Just after the double doors, you can find lecture theatre 1 on the right hand side. We will have signs in place and volunteers to help guide you on the day.